

Name _____ Per _____ Date _____

Phase Change Identification

Write the name of the process next to each statement. The processes are:

evaporation freezing melting boiling condensation sublimation

_____ 1. Icicles disappear

_____ 2. Wet clothes dry

_____ 3. Fog disappears

_____ 4. Water in the air becomes dew on the grass

_____ 5. Kool-aid becomes popsicles

_____ 6. Frozen laundry becomes dry on the clothesline

_____ 7. Water becomes ice

_____ 8. Frost becomes water

_____ 9. Water becomes steam

_____ 10. Mud puddles disappear

_____ 11. Popsicles become pop

_____ 12. Water forms on windows – windows fog up

_____ 13. Water in the air becomes frost

_____ 14. Wet hair dries

_____ 15. Water in the air becomes rain

_____ 16. Foggy windows clear up

_____ 17. Water in the air becomes snow

_____ 18. Perfume can be smelled

_____ 19. Gasoline can be ignited without touching a match to the liquid.

_____ 20. Dry ice can be used to make fake smoke and not make a mess.

